

Summary of Richmond Digital Health Literacy Classes

Site Name	# Grads	# Current Students	Facility	Structure	Instructor(s)
LEAP Computer Lab	119	18	Computer lab with 10 desktops; option to use chromebooks and COR public wifi network	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current model is afternoon classes 2 hours twice a week for 3 weeks. • First evening class started in November. • Originally tried having morning and afternoon drop-in computer lab hours to accommodate students with varied schedules, but attendance was inconsistent and retention was poor. • Having more classes in a shorter period of time has been more successful. 	LEAP administrative student intern; drop-in hours were supported by LEAP front desk senior volunteer who was program graduate
LEAP ESL Class	16	0	Used LEAP's Chromebooks in a classroom and COR public wifi network	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morning and afternoon classes as a portion of weekly ESL class time. • Upon completion, graduates would bring their laptops to class to use for other ESL focused activities. 	LEAP ESL Instructor
Richmond Public Library-- Main Branch	8	0	Used refurbished laptops and library's Chromebooks on COR public wifi network	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morning classes held before the library opened once a week for 2 hours for 5 weeks. • Students were parents who brought their children to the Lunch in the Library and/or Reading Heroes summer programs. Parents brought their children to the class. 	LEAP administrative student intern
Catholic Charities	58	11	Very large computer lab with new touch screen desktops; no access to wifi network	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morning class once a week for two hours for six weeks. • Students enrolled in a 4 day a week ESL class were given the option to come to Digital Health class on Friday mornings. 	LEAP ESL instructor and administrative student intern
North Richmond Baptist Church	6	0	Computer lab with 8 desktops	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evening class once a week for 2 hours • Students recruited by Service Community Corporation of North Richmond 	LEAP administrative student intern and LEAP contractor
Community Heritage	17	0	Computer lab with 4 old Windows XP desktops;	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Afternoon class once a week for 1 hour for 10 weeks 	LEAP contractor and LEAP administrative

Senior Apartments			most students preferred using LEAP's Chromebooks accessed with a password-protected facility wifi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students recruited by site service coordinator. 	student intern with support from site service coordinator
Barrett Terrace and Plaza	15	0	Community Center with 5 desktops; a few students worked on refurbished laptops on password-protected facility wifi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Morning class twice a week for 1 hour for 5 weeks and drop-in make-up hours with site service coordinator Students recruited by site service coordinator. 	Site service coordinator with support from LEAP contractor
Reentry Success Center	25	0	No computer lab; used a combination of RSC laptops and LEAP chromebooks on password-protected wifi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Morning class once a week for two hours for 6 weeks Students recruited by site staff 	LEAP administrative student intern and LEAP contractor with support from site staff
Crescent Park	10	0	Computer lab with 4 new touchscreen desktops, 1 mac laptop, 1 ipad; public wifi network available	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Morning class twice a week for 2 hours for 6 weeks Students recruited by site service coordinator. 	Site service coordinator with support from LEAP contractor
Pullman Point	11	0	Computer lab with 10 desktop computers with some technical problems; password protected wifi available	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Morning class once a week for 2 hours for 8 weeks Students recruited by site service coordinator 	LEAP contractor and LEAP administrative student intern with support from site service coordinator
Serra Adult School	11	0	Computer lab	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Morning class once a week for 2 hours for 6 weeks Students recruited by adult school instructor 	LEAP administrative student intern and LEAP contractor
Monterey Pines	5	0	Computer lab with 12 desktops with some technical problems; no wifi network available	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Morning class once a week for one hour for 10 weeks Students recruited by site service coordinator. The service coordinator experienced health issues and the lab was not able to be open consistently, so we encouraged students to come to LEAP to complete their training. 	LEAP contractor

Family Justice Center	12	0	Used meeting room and LEAP chromebooks with password-protected facility wifi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morning class once a week for 2 hours for 5 weeks • Students were part of a leadership development program led by the center. 	LEAP administrative student intern and LEAP contractor
Richmond High Parents Group	21	0	Large computer lab with new desktops	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morning class two hours a week for 8 weeks. • Class was initiated by a program graduate who was a peer leader with the Latina Center and chose to incorporate the digital health curriculum into a basic digital literacy program she developed. 	Program graduate with support from LEAP administrative student intern
Nevin Community Center	17	0	Community Center room with 5 desktops and used LEAP chromebooks with public COR wifi network	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Morning class two hours a week for 6 weeks. • Students were participants in a Wellness Navigators Program coordinated by a local community-based organization, YES Nature to Neighborhoods. 	LEAP administrative student intern, LEAP contractor, and YES staff and volunteer
Total	323	29

*Counts as of November 21, 2016